"In A Thoughtful Hour, Jerry D. Thomas has masterfully captured the essence of the final chapters of The Desire of Ages and developed study guides to accompany his devotional thoughts. At a time when the Seventh-day Adventist Church is emphasizing revival, this material can be powerfully used by the Holy Spirit to make a difference."

A Thoughtful Hour: Tracing the Final Footsteps of Jesus

Jerry D. Thomas

As precious as the story of Jesus is to each of us, our daily lives keep us so busy that it's hard to carve out the time we would like to spend learning about Him. That's why this book exists. It is designed to make that thoughtful hour easier, to give a little structure and focus to a study of the life of Christ. Whether you work through the pages as part of a study group or on your own, you will find a fresh look at the gospel story. The questions can be answered as part of a small group discussion, or in your own heart as you read in thoughtful consideration. It would be well to spend a thoughtful hour each day reviewing the life of Christ from the manger to Calvary. We should take it point by point and let the imagination vividly relive His teachings and suffering and the infinite sacrifice of His death for the redemption of the race. We may strengthen our love, and become more deeply imbued with the spirit which sustained our Saviour. If we would be saved at last, let us take time to think of Him.

Jesus' Last Journey 1

This study is based on Luke 9:51-10:24 and The Desire of Ages, chapter 53. —see also Messiah, chapter 53.

The turn toward Jerusalem

Jesus walked the roads and paths of Israel for three and a half years. From north of the Sea of Galilee, on both the east and west sides of the Jordan River, to Tyre and Sidon on the shore of the Mediterranean Sea, to the shores of the Dead Sea in the south, Jesus had covered the countryside. According to Matthew 9:35, "Jesus traveled through all the towns and villages, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the Good News about the kingdom, and healing all kinds of diseases and sicknesses" (NCV).

As Jesus traveled toward Jerusalem for the last time, He changed His method of working. Before this time, He had always tried to avoid publicity. He hushed those who praised Him and quieted anyone who declared that He was the Messiah. Sometimes He left towns before daylight so no one would know where He was headed. He tried to keep the crowd's expectations under control while He taught new truths about the kingdom of God.

Now His attitude toward publicity had changed. As He traveled toward Jerusalem, great crowds walked with Him. Announcements were sent ahead to the towns He would pass through, telling all that He was coming. Before, He had worked quietly—but now that He was headed for His own sacrifice, He invited attention.

As they traveled the countryside with Jesus, the disciples had longed for Jesus to go to Jerusalem, stand in the temple square, and declare Himself to be the Messiah. They wondered why Jesus hesitated. They were sure that the people would gather on His side, support His cause, and band together to drive out their enemies. They had begged Him to do so, sure that all of Israel would flock to follow Him.

But now they understood the depth of His enemies' hatred. Now they realized what would happen if Jesus should fall into their hands. They knew that the danger would increase with every footstep taken closer to Jerusalem.

The disciples would have done anything to stop Jesus from making this journey. They by the gospel of His grace was but just begun. And He not go forward to the vast fields of the world with the millions? Why not take to Himself the joy of giving light, so slow to act? Why face death now, and leave the work moment, had He changed His course in the least particular triumphed, and the world would have been lost.

"But Jesus had steadily set His face to go to Jerusalem. In the visit to the temple in His boyhood, He had said to Mary, "My Father's business? Luke 2:49. At Cana, when Mary desired Him to reveal His miraculous power, when they urged Him to go to the feast. John 2:4. With the same words He replied to His brethren, "I am going to Jerusalem, where His foes have long plotted to take His life; now He will lay down His life for the world." Desire of Ages, 486; see also Messiah, 273, 274.

Questions to consider

Why did Jesus change His method of working as He neared the end of His ministry? What practical benefits did this change bring? What risks?

What temptation did Satan use against Jesus at this time? Would that temptation have appealed to you?

One law of His life was the Father's will. How would you describe the "law" of your life?

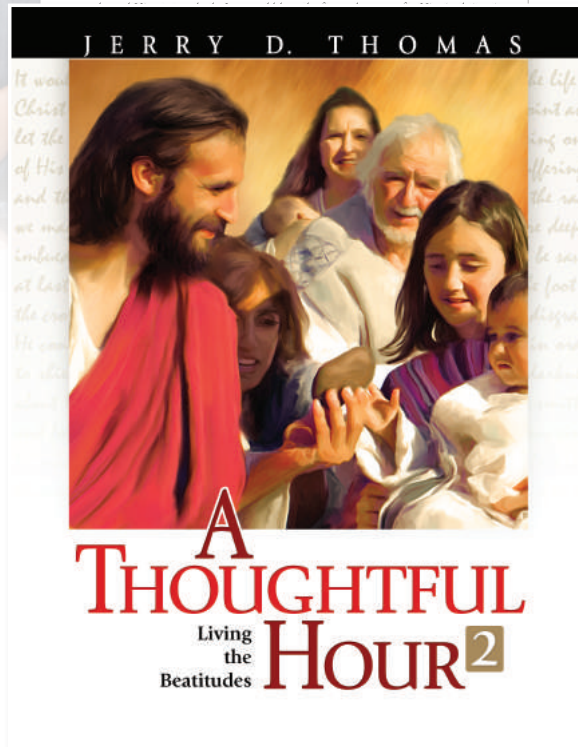

Thoughts on the story

Jesus' messengers ahead to a Samaritan village to announce that He was coming. But these hated the Jews and they refused to let Jesus stay there because He was going to the Jewish town. Jerusalem. Because of their prejudice, they missed out on the blessing He could have brought to the town.

Jesus and John were greatly insulted at this rude treatment. Seeing Mount Carmel in the distance, Jesus was reminded of the story of Elijah and the prophets of Baal. "Lord, do you want us to call fire

"It would be well for us to spend a thoughtful hour each day in contemplation of the life of Christ. We should take it point by point, and let the imagination grasp each scene, especially the closing ones. As we thus dwell upon His great sacrifice for us, our confidence in Him will be more constant, our love will be quickened, and we shall be more deeply imbued with His spirit."

—Desire of Ages, p. 83.

A Thoughtful Hour 2: Living the Beatitudes

Jerry D. Thomas

Imagine standing on the shore of the lake that morning, waiting and watching for Jesus. Following Him up the hillside, would you sit close by and watch—and listen? "Putting ourselves on the scene that day will help us hear the words of Jesus more clearly and understand what they should mean in our lives today. But to do that, we have to take time reading and studying His words." The teachings in the Beatitudes are a pathway to heaven, and we can learn to follow each step. Whether you work through the pages as part of a small group, or on your own, you will discover what it means to be a part of the kingdom of heaven today.

40 DAYS

For it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree" (Galatians 3:13).

John described the destruction that those who have rejected Christ will experience. He said, "The angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great winepress of the wrath of God. And the winepress was trodden without [outside of] the city [Jerusalem]." (Revelation 14:19, 20). Those lost will be destroyed by the brightness of Jesus' second coming. He had already suffered God's wrath when He was on the cross outside the "gate" of Jerusalem for His people (Hebrews 13:12).

So, why can God's people survive the second coming of Christ while everyone else on earth is being destroyed? They will survive because they have already died with Christ on the cross and were buried with Him. In Christ, they have already suffered the wrath. He expected for them outside the gate of Jerusalem on the cross. They are eternally free from the guilt and penalty of their sins, for Jesus paid the price for their freedom on the cross. As Paul wrote, "If we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him" (Romans 6:8). You too can look forward to the second coming of Christ with rejoicing because you have accepted Christ as your Savior.

Discussion Questions

- How many human beings will Christ's second coming affect?
- How do those who have rejected Christ as their Savior respond to His second coming?
- What does the Bible say will happen to those who have rejected Christ as their Savior when He returns?
- What constitutes the "suffering outside Jerusalem's gate" that Jesus did for His people?
- What prevents the destruction of those who have accepted Christ as their Savior at the Second Coming?

Prayer Focus

Pray for:

- God to fill you with the Holy Spirit.
- God to give you the desire to renew your relationship with Christ every day and thus be ready for His second coming.
- those on your prayer list.

"Their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more" (Hebrews 8:12). Satan may tempt you to doubt this promise of God, but consider what God did for David.

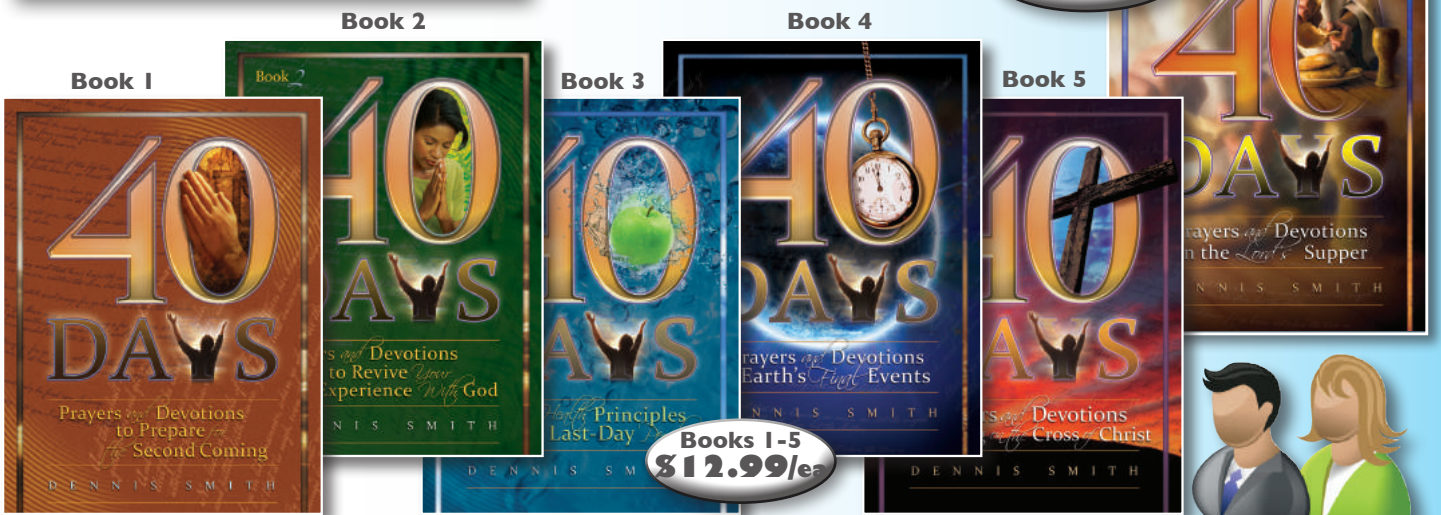

Though David should have known better, he committed adultery with Bathsheba and then ordered the murder of Uriah, Bathsheba's husband. Despite these terrible sins, when David repented, God forgave him. This forgiveness was so complete that God when was chastising rebellious King Jeroboam, He used David as an example of faithfulness! God ordered the prophet to tell Jeroboam, "Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Forasmuch as I created thee from among the people, and made thee prince over my people Israel, and rent the kingdom away from the house of David, and gave it thee: and yet thou hast not been as my servant David, who kept my commandments, and who followed me with all his heart, to do that only which was right in mine eyes" (1 Kings 14:7, 8, emphasis added).

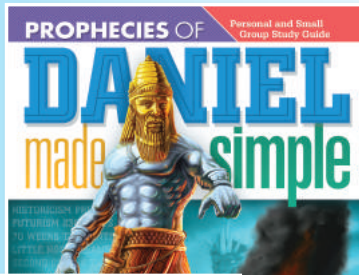

Later, God chose David's son Bathsheba's son Solomon to become the next king in the Messianic line (See 2 Samuel 12). He doubt there were many people whom God could have chosen to follow David and Solomon in that line, so we might ask why He would choose those He did? God can do such things because Jesus' death on the cross justified God's extending amazing grace and complete forgiveness to sinners.

God gives something else to sinners when they accept Jesus Christ as their Savior. Christ resisted temptations and lived a perfectly sinless, obedient, righteous life on our behalf. He offers this righteousness to sinners who accept Him as their Savior. "For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin,"

He also explains what the prophecies meant for the apostle John and what they have to say to us today. Amazing Grace: A Bible Study Course

Elizaeth Viera Talbot

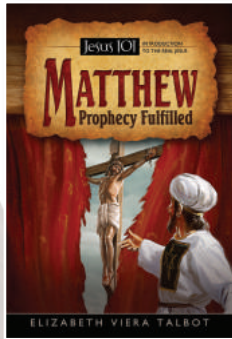

Amazing Grace, how sweet the sound!

Imagine two loving parents holding their baby for the very first time. Now try and imagine what they would do if their little one was snatched away from them by a kidnapper, determined to destroy their child. If we can understand how a parent would feel, perhaps we can begin to understand the desperation God felt to get His children back. The story of His plan of redemption, is narrated from Genesis to Revelation and it tells of His rescue plan carried out through the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus. In fact, the Bible was written to announce this plan!

The human race, buried under sin, with no possibility of eternal survival, could only be rescued with help from above. The Savior of the world came down to rescue His children, and the Scriptures are filled with joy and excitement, for salvation has been achieved for all who accept His plan. The ten lessons in this Bible study course reveal that we have a Master Rescuer who gave us His gift of amazing grace! Each lesson poses questions and gives space for the student to reflect on what they have studied. 978-0-8163-5622-5 • US$3.99 • Also available in Spanish

The Ministry of Healing is a classic work that spells out God's plan for the health and happiness of the human family. Here you will find inspired counsel on everything from diet and exercise to building happy homes and an eternal relationship with the Creator. Let The Ministry of Healing lead you to vibrant health, service to others, and peace with God. Free study guide available for download on AdventistBookCenter.com.

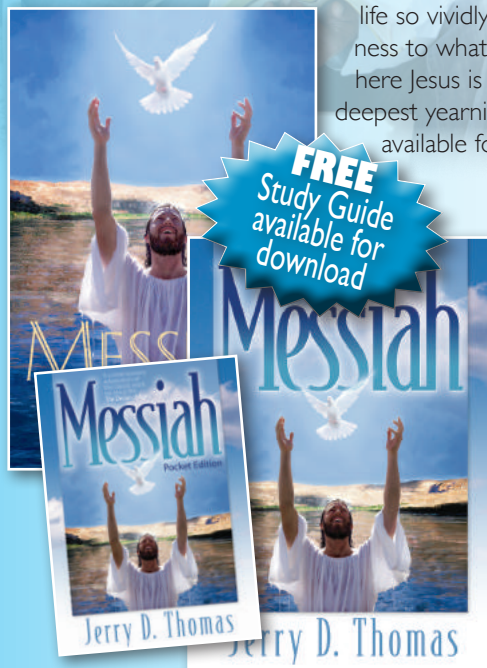

Health and happiness go hand in hand. Never has it been more important to understand the physical and spiritual laws of health than today, when stress, mental illness, heart disease, AIDS, and cancer are ravaging our society. Is there a better way to live? To better communicate the timeless truths in our health message to today's generation, the Ellen G. White Estate has produced The Ministry of Health and Healing, an adaptation of The Ministry of Healing. The sentences are shorter, repetition has been removed, and the vocabulary reflects 21st century speech. But the message of Ellen White's 1905 classic has not changed.

Now there is a comprehensive study guide developed by Dr. Jon Paulien and the North American Division Health Ministries Department, The Ministry of Healing Study Guide. It was designed to compliment the study of either of these two books. This chapter-by-chapter study guide features a brief summary, thoughts, Quotable Quotes, @tweets_of_healing, and Discussion Questions for each chapter, making it perfect for small group studies, prayer meetings, or as a follow-up to traditional Bible studies.
