

TO UPLIFT CHRIST AND MAKE HIM KNOWN

Media Release ► Pacificpress.com

In times like these . . . Pacific Press® has published books that bring hope and understanding

Nampa, Idaho (September 17, 2001) - The tragic events in New York and Washington DC weigh heavily on all of us. You may have been searching for some kind of comfort, or perhaps you are looking for words of hope and understanding to share with others. Be assured that we are praying for you and America during these troubled times.

We have prepared a list of suggested book titles that may fill your need. If it seems appropriate, you might wish to place a notice in church bulletins, reminding members that help is available.

For your convenience, we've divided the list: books to comfort members, and books for members to share with others. We've also made a list of Spanish titles. Visit adventistbookcenter.com or call toll free 1-800-765-6955.
