Satisfied by Mark Finley is the new “sharing book of the year” for 2003

Nampa, Idaho (October 3, 2002) – Pacific Press has just announced a major worldwide marketing campaign for the 2003 Sharing Book of the Year. Pacific Press asked Mark Finley, speaker/director of the It Is Written telecast, to write the 2003 Sharing Book, entitled Satisfied. Hundreds of thousands have been printed and are now ready for distribution through the Adventist Book Centers.

Elder Finley is known around the world as a man of God and someone who has the unique ability to share Jesus Christ with a wide range of people. The author shows how God will meet every reader’s deepest, innermost need. This powerful book is written to touch people’s lives right where they live.

Bob Kyte, president of Pacific Press comments, “As we talked with Elder Finley, we wanted to add something unique with this book. We share a passion to win souls for Christ. So we intentionally included three specific follow-up opportunities for the reader. On the last two pages of the book, the reader is invited to select two of the three listed items, absolutely free:

- An audio sermon tape by Mark Finley
- A sample copy of Signs of the Times
- Bible study guides

Inexpensively priced with a friendly message of hope, members will find that Satisfied is easy to share. Imagine how exciting it would be if each church member gave just one copy to a friend. I know the church would receive many requests for Bible studies.”

Pacific Press has sent a free copy of Satisfied, along with a four-minute video from Mark Finley to every church in North America and selected countries worldwide. Advertising will appear in various Adventist publications this fall.
