When Life is Unfair

Nampa, Idaho (December 19, 2012) — Each time disaster strikes the old questions surface: "Where is God in all of this? Why didn't he intervene?" Caught in the ragged reality of the latest crisis - the loss of 20 first-graders and six adults at Sandy Hook Elementary in Newtown, Connecticut - the questions ring out today with an urgency that demands an answer.

Although humanity has always sensed a cosmic struggle between good and evil, the Seventh-day Adventist church is unique in its understanding of the impact the great controversy has on events taking place on earth.

The first week of January, Pacific Press® will release a new resource by Elder Mark A. Finley, When Life is Unfair, in which Finley asks and answers life's toughest questions. With brevity and beauty he traces the story of the ages and points readers toward the hope found in Christ alone.

When Life is Unfair is an excellent resource for anyone who has ever asked "Why?" Orders for the 16-paged magazine can be made through local Adventist Book Centers and online at
