The Desire of Ages box set Nampa, Idaho (February 28, 2014) — On Friday, February 28th, a new movie on the life of Christ will be released by 20th Century Fox. The Son of God is based on the History Channel's record-breaking miniseries The Bible which debuted last March. Produced by husband and wife team, Mark Burnett and Roma Downey, the movie details the life of Jesus from His birth to His resurrection. With its impressive pre-release publicity campaign targeted at Christian leaders and churches across the country, and attracting millions who viewed The Bible, this movie, The Son of God is poised to draw thousands to theaters across the country for the next several weeks.

What an opportunity this presents to share the life-changing story of Jesus as portrayed in that classic, The Desire of Ages . Ellen White wrote, "God would be pleased to see The Desire of Ages in every home. In this book is contained the light He has given upon His word. To our canvassers I would say, Go forth with your hearts softened and subdued by reading of the life of Christ. Drink deeply of the water of salvation, that it may be in your heart as a living spring, flowing forth to refresh souls ready to perish."-Letter 75, 1900.

After the release of Mel Gibson's The Passion of the Christ, Pacific Press® distributed 859,000 copies of a special issue of Signs of the Times to church members eager to share material with movie goers, friends, and family.
