October is Spirit of Prophecy Month

Nampa, Idaho (October 13, 2015)

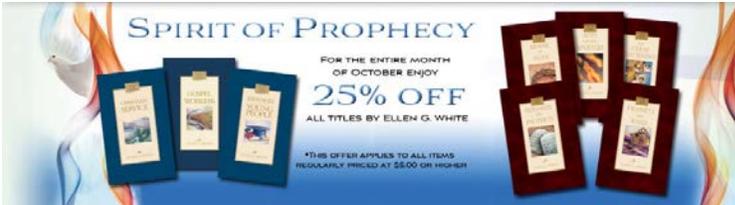

Seventh-day Adventists are not alone in their recognition of Ellen G. White as a person of influence. In November 2014, the Smithsonian Magazine named her as one of the 100 most significant Americans of all time. No one has been translated more frequently than White in the entire history of literature, and she is the most translated American author of either gender. Her classic book on Christian living, Steps to Christ, has been translated into more than 140 languages.

Each year Pacific Press® honors the important role her writings continue to play within the Seventh-day Adventist Church by setting aside the month of October to highlight her work. For the entire month, all of her writings qualify for a 25% discount. This offer applies to all regularly priced items of $5.00 or more.

"We're glad to make the Spirit of Prophecy materials available at a reduced price," said Dale Galusha, president at Pacific Press®. "These books need to be found in all Adventist homes and it is part of our mission to help make that possible," he added.
