New Board elects Management Team

Nampa, Idaho (November 04, 2015)

A New Pacific Press® board of directors was elected yesterday at the North American Division year-end meetings in Silver Spring, Md. Shortly afterward, the new board convened to select the management team for Pacific Press®. All five members of the current management team were reelected:

- * Dale Galusha, president
- * Martin Ytreberg, vice president for finance
- * Doug Church, vice president for marketing and sales
- * Jerry D. Thomas, vice president for product development
- * Robert Congleton, vice president for production.

The new Pacific Press® board of directors will serve for the next five years. Many of those who had previously served on the board will continue, with the addition of a few new individuals. The board has representatives from each union in the North American Division.

Those in attendance at the year-end meetings, which wrap up today, include more than 200 division, conference, and union officials from across the NAD, as well as teachers, pastors and laypeople.

Dale Galusha
reelected to lead
Pacific Press®
for another term.

The press is a powerful means to move the minds and hearts of the people. . . Tracts, papers, and books, as the case demands, should be circulated in all the cities and villages in the land. Here is missionary work for all.
