

Press in Print

News and Information from the President's Office assembled by Judy Williams

March 7, 2024

HR News . . .

by Julie Nichols

Attn. New Employees

New Employee Orientation is next Monday, March 11, from 2-4 pm in the Owyhee Room.

All participants should have received a communication from their supervisor and an email from us.

We'll have snacks and learn about Pacific Press history and more! See you there!

Pie Day

The Social Committee is hosting "Pie Day" next Thursday, March 14th, from 12-1.

You will find us during lunch in either the Owyhee Room, or under the trees outside in front of the pond, depending on weather.

Come and grab a slice of pie and say hello!

Spilling the Tea

Get ready for our very first "Spilling the Tea" Chapel happening this coming Monday!

It's a great opportunity to connect and bond with one another.

Bring your detective skills and see if you can be the first to uncover who is who.

And don't forget, if you haven't submitted your questionnaire to Julie yet, you still have time to do so.

We look forward to learning more about you!

Recipes . . .

Do you happen to have an amazing vegetarian or vegan recipe that you'd love to share with your colleagues? This is your chance!

Feel free to send them in either through interoffice mail or by emailing them to judy.williams@pacificpress.com.

We can't wait to try out your delicious creations!

Did You Know

by Julie Nichols

Tax Time Helps

Many of us now file our federal tax return electronically. There are several brands of free tax-filing software available including: Cash App Taxes, FreeTaxUSA, TaxAct, TaxSlayer and TurboTax Free Edition.

In addition, the IRS and AARP, among other organizations, offer free tax-filing assistance to eligible taxpayers.

Don't forget to file your tax return, especially if you're on track to receive a federal tax refund. For the 2019 tax year an estimated 1.5 billion in federal tax refunds remained unclaimed as of June 2023!

Making a Difference . . .

by Unknown Author, shared by Dale Galusha

A lady once raised a puppy and a kitten together. She said they grew very fond of each other. They ate out of the same dish, slept in the same bed, and were always together.

When they grew up, the dog was considerably larger than the cat, of course, but was always very gentle in his treatment of her. If the cat was wanted and could not be found, it was only necessary to say to the dog: "Go and get kitty," and off he would trot to find his playmate, soon bringing her back in his mouth, as a mother cat carries her kitten.

One day, the dog jumped from a second-story window, and broke his leg. A more sympathetic and devoted nurse than the cat would have been hard to find. She would sit by the hour with the dog's head resting on her paws, occasionally licking his face as if to comfort him. — Unknown, Our Little Friend, October 16, 1925.

Our furry friends often teach us valuable lessons of kindness, compassion, empathy, loyalty and unwavering love.

Final Farewell . . .

Will Richards was a long-time employee of the Pacific Press. He had relocated from Mountain View to Idaho with the Press. The last position he held was as Director of Purchasing. He will be deeply missed by his friends and family.

Wil's memorial service will be held at the Caldwell SDA church on Sunday, March 10th at 2:00 pm.

Daylight Savings Time . . .

Remember to adjust your clocks before going to bed on Saturday night, March 9.

On Sunday, March 10, at 2:00 am, the time will move forward to 3:00 am.

As a result, sunrise and sunset will occur approximately 1 hour later on Sunday evening compared to the previous evening.

This means that mornings will be darker for a bit longer, while evenings will have more daylight.

Dateline . . .

March Calendar

- 6 PAYDAY
- 11 Chapel - HR - Spilling the Tea
- 18 No Chapel - Board Week
- 20 PAYDAY
- 21 Chapel - BOARD - Kyoshin Ahn

March Birthdays

- 9 Julie Nichols
- 14 Troy Haagenon
- 17 Dan Lee
- 20 Joe Gutierrez
- 22 Matthew Kabush
- 29 Tony Jarrett
- 30 Steve Lanto