Ricardo welcomes a new granddaughter

Ricardo Bentancur (Product Development) is excited to share some news with us!

"On October 12 was born in Hamilton, Canada, at 2:15 pm EST, Lucía Edén, my beloved granddaughter. She weighed 7 lbs. It was Thanksgiving Day in Canada: our family is very grateful to God for this miracle!" — Ricardo

Congratulations to the whole family!

Happy Boss' Day!

We want to wish a Happy 'Belated' Boss's Day to all our wonderful bosses at Pacific Press!

National Boss Day is annually observed in the United States on October 16, or the nearest working day.

Boss's Day is dedicated to all employers and provides a prospect of improving the liaison between employers and their staff. This observance also gives employees a chance to recognize those in supervisory positions.

The concept of National Boss Day began in 1958 when Patricia Bays Haroski, then an employee at State Farm Insurance Company in Deerfield, Illinois, registered the holiday with the United States Chamber of Commerce. She designated October 16 as the special day because it was her father's birthday. Haroski's purpose was to designate a day to show appreciation for her boss and other bosses. She also hoped to improve the relationship between employees and supervisors.

Four years later in 1962, Illinois Governor Otto Kerner backed Haroski's registration and officially proclaimed the day.
