Updates . . .

New Saddle Stitcher!

During the spring board meeting of 2020, Pacific Press was approved for the purchase of a new saddle stitcher. The fruition of that purchase is finally happening! Gene Herbel has taken lead on the project, which has consumed much of his time over the last few months. There has been a lot of logistics, like new air lines and electrical work, to get lined up prior to installation.

We are currently in the 2nd week of the installation. The removal of the old Primera stitcher started on Monday, November 2 and it was gone by noon Wednesday the 4th.

The floor was then prepped and sealed. This past Monday, the 9th, all the pieces of the new stitcher were brought in and assembly started Tuesday morning. Full production will begin December 7.
