Anita Seymour Is Retiring!

This last Monday, February 6th, we had a special Retirement Chapel for Anita Seymour, who will be retiring at the end of February. Over 30 years of service at Pacific Press! She will be greatly missed.

Her hard work and organizational skills were on display daily. She has been the managing editor of Our Little Friend and Primary Treasure since 2015, producing about 104 magazines per year, what a feat!

Before she began managing the magazines, she held several positions in Editorial and also in the Marketing department for a while. She first came to PP back in December of 1990.

Anita has made many friends along the way and many of them spoke up on Monday and mentioned what a great friend she is, always supportive and helpful.

In her retirement Anita plans to continue helping with OLF and PT on a part-time basis for a little while. She will also be enjoying her grandson, Griffin, as she's going to help her daughter take care of him a couple of days a week. We're not sure who's luckier, Anita or Griffin!

Anita, we wish you the happiest and healthiest retirement!

Marketing Seminar

The 2023 Marketing Seminar is coming soon to Pacific Press!

On Tuesday, February 21, ABC managers from around the North American Division will gather together to learn about Pacific Press' newest books and products.

The meetings will be held in the Owyhee Room, and so we ask everyone to please avoid the Owyhee Room during the sessions. Please make other arrangements for lunch on that day since the refrigerators and microwaves will not be available and the tables won't be set up.

February may be the shortest month of the year, but there are still so many important days and celebrations packed into the 28 days (or 29 if it's a leap year).

February boasts popular holidays like Groundhog Day, Valentine's Day, Galentine's Day (which takes place on February 13 for you to celebrate loving your friends) and President's Day.

It also contains key events like the Super Bowl (which this year will be on Sunday, February 12). It's also Black History Month, American Heart Month and many other observances.
