

Press in Print

News and Information from the President's Office assembled by Judy Williams

May 15, 2024

Save The Dates . . .

Summer Social

by Julie Nichols

Get ready for a fantastic summer social event on Thursday, June 20th! All RSVP forms are due back by June 3! It will be a fun evening with dinner first, followed by Wahooz games including; go karts, laser tag, miniature golf and bumper boats!

150th Anniversary Celebration

This gospel of God's love continues to be spread in word, because of you!

Sabbath, August 17 will be our official celebration of the 150th anniversary of Pacific Press: Proclaiming God's Love for 150 Years!

Brandt Center on the NW Nazarene University
Campus
707 Fern Street
9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.

All are invited—and bring a friend!

Making a Difference . . .

Tour Guides:

Our team of Tour Guides here at the Press are truly exceptional. They are dedicated and hardworking individuals who go above and beyond to ensure our guests have an unforgettable experience.

They sometimes have just a moment's notice to change from what they are doing to leading a tour. Whether it's a small group or large one, they are always up for the challenge.

Thank you for your dedication and willingness to tackle whatever comes your way!

FYI . . .

This coming Monday, we will be having several groups touring the Press from 12:30 - 2:30. They will be meeting in the Owyhee room in preparation for their tours.

Tours at the Press . . .

by Laura Samano

Graylyn "Gray" Green, a recent senior at Wilder High School, chose to do his senior project on publishing. A former junior and earliteen Sabbath school student of Guide managing editor Laura Sámano, he recently "shadowed" the Guide editors.

As a part of his project, Gray took Guide's Young Writers Course, which is available online at guidemagazine.org. Created by Guide editor Randy Fishell, the course helps students learn how to write for Guide.

Having passed the quizzes at the end of each of the course's chapters, Gray visited Pacific Press on Wednesday, April 10.

Marianne Daugharthy, Administrative Director of Advertising, gave him a tour of the building.

While passing through production, Gray spotted Mikayla Creitz, a fellow Nampa Church member and friend. Following the tour, Gray had a video conference with Guide editor Randy Fishell.

"The tour and shadowing Laura and Randy was cool," Gray reported. "Marianne was fun and she didn't make the tour boring. It was a great experience."

Gray presented his senior project prior to graduating.

New Faces at the Press . .

Welcome Graylyn "Gray" Green Press Room

After graduating from high school, Graylyn decided to apply for a job here at the Press. He accepted the position as Press Crew member and began work on April 22, just 12 days after his tour.

When it comes to communication, Graylyn values personal connections through face-to-face interactions or phone calls. Some things that bring Graylyn joy, include reading, the beauty of glaciers and anything water related.

If money were no issue, Graylyn would love to tour across the incredible landscapes of Europe.

Welcome to the PPPA family Graylyn! We're so glad you're here!

Welcome Jenae Rogers Finance

Jenae recently joined our Finance team, bringing her unique blend of skills and experiences. After completing her 3rd year at Andrews University, where she is studying Mathematics and English Education, she decided to spend her summer with us. Her father, John Rogers, is already a part of our Finance team, and her mother is the accountant at Gem State Academy. Growing up with both her parents involved in financial matters, it seems to come naturally to her. Jenae also has two younger brothers.

Jenae is not only a dedicated student but also a family-oriented individual who values spending quality time with her loved-ones. In addition to her strong family bonds, she finds joy in assisting others in grasping challenging concepts. Given her natural gift for teaching, she will make an excellent educator.

One of her most memorable experiences was teaching mathematics at Palau Mission Academy for a year. It's no surprise that if Jenae were asked to deliver an impromptu speech, it would definitely revolve around mathematics.

If Jenae could travel anywhere without worrying about money, she would explore the world.

A fun fact about Jenae is she was born with an extra bone in her wrist.

Jenae's favorite foods include Italian and pasta dishes.

Welcome to the PPPA family Jenae! We're so glad you're here

Dateline . . .

May Calendar

15	PAYDAY
20	Chapel
27	HOLIDAY – Memorial Day
29	PAYDAY

May Birthdays

16	Jonathan Carpenter
18	Linda Allen
21	Gume Medina
22	Victor Recuenco
25	Ethan Bartlett
27	Camden Ross
31	Dot Schelhorn

