New Face at the Press . .

Welcome

Raquel Romas

Receptionist

I'm sure many of you have already met our new afternoon
receptionist. Her name is Raquel Ramos.

Raquel's smile lights up the room! Her love for people, enjoying face-to-face communication and having a desire to do a great job, makes her a wonderful fit for her receptionist role.

Raquel was homeschooled through high school and is now enrolled at CWI. After hearing about this position from friends, she decided to apply. Although this is her first official job, she previously enjoyed volunteering at the AMEN clinic a few years ago.

At home, Raquel lives with; her mother, who works in fiber optic production, her father, who is in fraud prevention and her brother, who is also in college. Whether she is hiking or just spending quality time, her family and friends are what brings her the most joy.

If money were not a concern, Raquel would love to explore Costa Rica with her family.

Besides her sunny disposition being an wonderful attribute, she also plays the piano and violin. If she needed to give an impromptu speech, it would most likely be music related.

You'll have to ask Raquel about her homemade tacos. They are her favorite food.

Welcome to the PPPA family Raquel! We're so glad you're here!

HR News . . .

As we approach another election cycle, let's be sure to keep political discussions out of the workplace and remember to be respectful to others, even if there are differing opinions.
We're all children of the King!

Making a Difference . . .

Pocket Signs brings Joy to others

"Pastor Danny Velez polled the Earliteen group of the Chapel Oaks SDA Church (Shawnee, KS) to see what they'd like to do with some remaining money in their budget," says Reba Lucky. "After some thought, they let him know that they wanted to use the money to help others. Last Friday afternoon they met at the church for a meal, then went to the nearby Walmart. They purchased gift cards. The cards were placed inside a Pocket Signs tract and given to folks. One was given to a Walmart employee who was crying.

She was having a tough day and one of the young people gave her the tract entitled 'Does God Care That I'm Hurting?' with a gift card inside. Her tears turned to tears of joy. Afterward, the young people let Pastor Danny know how rewarding it had been to them to help those in need. We are so pleased that our young people are choosing to serve others in the name of Jesus," says Reba.

Change . . .

One change I didn't mention in our last Press in Print is that Makayla Creitz will soon be leaving with her family for Lebanon. Her parents will be working at the Adventist College and Makayla will be attending college there. This is a missionary adventure so please keep her and her family in your prayers.

Whether across the globe or to the person standing next to us, we are all missionaries ready to share God's love with those we come in contact with. What an awesome and sometimes frightening privilege!

Signs . . .

This statement appeared in the July 23, 1874 issue:

Through the SIGNS OF THE TIMES we wish to erect thousands of pulpits more especially in the Pacific Coast States and Territories, where we can appeal to the people weekly, when we shall be well established and in full force, upon the exhaustless themes of "repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ," necessary to a fitness to receive the dear Saviour at his second advent.

For the past 150 years, Signs of the Times has continued to share Christ's love, not just on the west coast of the United States, but around the world.

150th Anniversary Celebration

This gospel of God's love continues to be spread in word, because of you!

Sabbath, August 17 will be our official celebration of the 150th anniversary of Pacific Press: Proclaiming God's Love for 150 Years!

Brandt Center on the NW Nazarene University Campus
707 Fern Street
9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.

All are invited—and bring a friend!
